Meeting with Naizen, Association of Families with Trans Minors

As part of the exhibition A Voice for Erauso. Epilogue for a Trans Time

Naizen, the Basque and Navarre Association of Families with Trans Minors, is organising a meeting aimed at schools as part of the exhibition A Voice for Erauso. Epilogue for a Trans Time. It is presented as a collective reflexive space to create awareness for the diverse reality for a Trans person.

After visiting the exhibition, the group Hikiru will screen their documentary Transformaten, followed by the life testimony of several members of the Association to kick off a discussion where queries about transsexuality in childhood and adolescence can be clarified.

////////////////////////////////////

May 3, 4, Tuesday & Wednesday

////////////////////////////////////

In collaboration with:

---

NAIZEN is the Basque and Navarre Association of Families with Trans Minors. They work to help, educate and advise families with Trans minors, and create awareness of this reality, likewise in defence of their rights. They foster the depathologization and acceptance of transsexuality as another form of diversity, as well as training professionals who intervene with the minors.
